INTRODUCTION

Spring is in the air. With it comes new and exciting novels from our talented authors of Midwest Mystery Writers of America (MWMWA), available now and in the upcoming months.

Please consider supporting our local authors by adding their books to your catalog and/or featuring them in book signings, workshops or speaking engagements.

Authors' web sites and e-mail addresses are provided. You may contact the authors directly when you need them.

If you have any questions, feel free to e-mail me at magruner@prodigy.net and put LIBRARY in the subject line so it doesn't get mixed in with the spam. I hope you enjoy the Spring Edition and make use of its contents to enrich your library.

Thanks for your interest in the Midwest Chapter of Mystery Writers of America.

NOTES OF INTEREST

MICHAEL

SEARS & STANLEY TROLLIP is the writing team of two South African-born friends who have traveled frequently to the magnificent Botswana wilderness.

MICHAEL A. BLACK graduated from Columbia College with a Master of Fine Arts degree, yet he has often said that police work has been his life.

ALEX MATTHEWS is a winner of the Wordweaving Award for Excellence, the Cat Writers Association Certificate of Excellence, and the Readers Choice Award for Best Series Character.

MICHAEL ALLEN DYMMOCH has served as President and Secretary of MWMWA & as newsletter editor for the Chicagoland Chapter of Sisters in Crime. She now lives & works in Chicago.

DEB BAKER was born on a cold and snowy March day in Escanaba, Michigan, mere miles from the setting for her Gertie Johnson mystery series.

RAYMOND BENSON has been an author, composer, computer game designer, stage director, film historian, & film genres instructor & is also the 4th official author of the James Bond 007 novels.

The duck-and-cover Cold War, Eastern European roots, and environmental concerns shape MICHAEL BERES' novels.

JESS LOUREY spent her formative years in Paynesville, Minnesota, a small town like the Murder by Month series' Battle Lake. She now lives in St. Cloud, Minn.

JULIE KRAMER is a freelance news producer for NBC's Today show, Nightly News, and Dateline. Prior to that she was a national award-winning investigative producer for WCCO-TV in Minneapolis.
