INTRODUCTION

As the new Library Liaison for the Midwest Mystery Writers of America (MWMWA), I'm here to advise you of the exciting new offerings of our chapter members.

Please consider supporting your local authors by adding their books to your catalog and/or featuring them in book signings, workshops or speaking engagements.

Authors' websites and e-mail addresses are provided. You may contact the authors directly when you need them.

If you have any questions, feel free to e-mail me at magruner@prodigy.net and put LIBRARY in the subject line so it doesn't get mixed in with the spam. I hope you'll enjoy the new format and make use of the contents to enrich your library.

Thanks for your interest in the Midwest Chapter of Mystery Writers of America.
